

THE NEWS IN OGDEN.

A Lady Interviews the Rio Grande Train Robber.

A BIT OF PERSONAL HISTORY.

Another Incendiary Blaze—The Real Estate Transfers—The Week and Evening—General News.

SALT LAKE HERALD BUREAU,
No. 200 WASHINGTON AVENUE,
OGDEN, Sept. 25, 1930.

Scott Anderson is now the regular correspondent of the Deseret News from Ogden. A marriage license was granted last evening to George W. White and Mrs. Belle Adams.

In the matter of the estate of R. K. Williams, an order was made making a family allowance.

Ex-Congressman George G. Simms from Colorado, spent Monday in Ogden taking in the beauties of our city.

The street car company are about to move their round house out to the bridge. The change will be of benefit to the company.

Clay reports come to town from the Silver Hill and Little Kate mines. Mr. Daniel Homer, the lucky owner, may well be proud of his properties.

The Ogden newsstand which was burned Monday night, has been reopened at 324 south, Twenty-fifth street, where The Herald may always be found.

Mrs. J. M. Preshaw is quite ill at her residence on Jefferson avenue. Her husband is somewhat improved, but the house at present presents the appearance of a hospital.

The contract for painting the new bank building has been given to C. Anderson & Son. This firm are doing a brisk business in painting and papering some of the best buildings lately erected.

Mr. Henry Last, who has been with Burt & Brother, dry goods store, for the past six years, has accepted a position with W. H. Wright & Sons, the change to take place on the first of October. What's Burt's loss is Wright's gain.

Stead for the belt line has again begun to come in and work has been resumed on the line. It is believed that the line will be completed by the first of October.

The loss in Sunday night's fire on Twenty-eighth street is estimated as reaching at least $15,000. Only a small part of the furniture was saved, and most of the personal property of the inmates. Had the city been supplied with a steamer and a fire alarm system, it is probable the house could have been saved.

The girls say the fire in the Eighth street mansion started from the outside and two men with torches were seen leaving the premises. A sick girl in trying to leave the house fainted and fell down, but was cared for by her associates. It was reported that she had died from her exposure, but inquiry proves this to be false.

E. E. Dayton, the Train Robber, interviewed by a Lady.

Upon going to the county jail yesterday afternoon and requesting to see the incarcerated train robber, we were kindly shown to the cell by Sheriff Behan and Deputy White, who asked the prisoner to come into the gaslight and allow a lady representative of The Herald to see a real, sure enough, train robber. Upon which invitation the young man stepped into the corridor and he would allow and smilingly said: "Well, there's not much to see about me. I am not so anxious to see you, Mr. Dayton, as to have a little talk with you and let you see how here, but the public are interested in your case, of course. I would like to ask you a few questions if you don't mind answering them. Where did you come from?"

"Where was I born? Way back east in a place called Massachusetts."

"Is that so? That is my state and it's a good one to come from. Where in Massachusetts is it?"

"I would rather not say, but near Boston, very near, in the suburbs."

"Are your parents living?"

"No; my mother died when I was five and my father when I was two and a half years of age."

"Where and how have you spent your life mostly?"

"With my relatives at school near Boston, till fourteen, then I left home and went to Texas, where I have been most of the time since."

"What have you been doing?"

"Most of the time I have been in the stock business, a cowboy; part of the time mining."

"Did you own stock yourself, or work for others?"

"Worked for other men mostly; owned a few horses; own some now."

"Have you any brothers or sisters except this one who is under arrest?"

"He is not my brother. That is a false statement I made at the start. I have two brothers and two sisters; one sister is married. One of my brothers, I don't know where he is."

"I believe you acknowledge the crime of robbing the train, don't you? Where you are one of a gang, or did you do the work on your own responsibility?"

"I didn't acknowledge at first, but I do now. I robbed that train. I planned it all myself."

"How old are you?"

"Twenty-two years the 12th of last April."

"You don't look as old as that. I guess you went over, undertake such a robbery again will you?"

"Well (laughing), no, I guess not; not if I was out now I wouldn't; but then time works wonders. I can't tell what I might do."

"I should think a little time here would change any one a good deal. Well, you have had so many in the afternoon, I won't ask any questions, but will come again. Thank you for answering so explicitly. Good bye."

Dayton is a fine looking, dark complexioned young man, showing quite an air of refinement, intermixed with a rather defiant dark blue eye. A remarkably good-looking Texas cowboy he must have been. Dayton had just been receiving a letter from the Rio Grande train men who were on the ill-fated train when it was attacked. The conductor, engineer and express messenger had an opportunity of freely conversing with the prisoner, who is quite communicative to all whom the facts are out.

Here remarked to the messenger who had to be flat to escape his inmate: "I didn't mean to hit you, but I might have come a little too close for comfort."

Sheriff Behan has thoroughly worked up this case and is still at it and surely deserves the $1,000 each which the road offered, but is now counting into $1,000 for all. A visit at the county jail yesterday showed four unfortunate women inside, each under sentence of ten dollars and thirty days for keeping a house of prostitution. Eugene Campbell on the same charge had one hundred dollars and four months.

The Real Estate Transfers.

The real estate transfers yesterday were as follows: Charles M. Adams, of Colorado, to Augustus B. Patton, lot 4 in block 33, lots 7 and 8 in block 38, lots 6 and 7 in block 40, in the Nob Hill addition, $1,500.

Frank J. Cannon and wife and Florence Nelson to Fred J. Kiesel a part of the southwest quarter of section 9, township 6 north, range 1 west, $10,000.

Moses Byrne and wife to James H. Bacon north half of the southeast quarter of section 22, $1,500.

Frederick C. Rich and wife to Benjamin E. Rich the northwest quarter of section 22, north range 1; $6,100.

There were several small transfers but not materially changing the total.

The Weak and Erring.

On complaint of J. B. McLeellan, Sue Cleveland, Carrie Green (colored) and Jane Doe (a foreigner) were arrested charged with resorting to and residing in a house of prostitution. They were arraigned before Judge Cross yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty. They were sentenced to thirty days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $10 each. A "callous" friend of Carrie's appeared before his honor and pleaded to have his sweetheart released.

Clay reported a dead car and Carrie was assigned to a dance with her weak and erring sisters.

Eugene Campbell was arrested for keeping a house of prostitution. He was arraigned before Judge Cross and pleaded not guilty. The trial resulted in his being found guilty, and he was sentenced to join his fair sister, four months in the county jail and $100.

Decision was rendered by Judge Cross yesterday in the case of Greenwell vs. McLeellan, a non-delivery of sheep, $72 for plaintiff.

Yesterday Morning's Fire.

Another incendiary blaze in Ogden. At 4 a.m. yesterday a fire originated in the rear of the Ogden news depot, owned by G. E. Morse, which was totally destroyed. Payson & Co.'s tobacco store and Doe's notion store were also burned. Some cigars and tobacco were saved from Payson's.

But little was taken out of Doe's and his loss on stock is not very heavy. Insurance—Payson, $1,500; stock valued at $3,500. Morse, $300; stock valued at $1,500.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based, and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup company.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed.

Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they are their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alternative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, or long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at A. C. Smith & Co.'s drug store.
